

UG Aspirants Are Increasingly Open To Studying Abroad Through Hybrid Learning Options

Employment Opportunities & Cost Of Education Are The Key Drivers For Overseas Studies

38% students ranked Employment Opportunities as the most important criteria while choosing an overseas destination

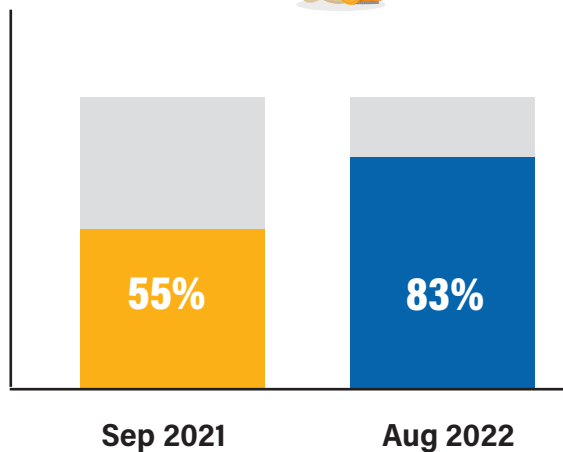

More than half of the UG aspirants rely on Family Savings to finance their overseas education

Note - Students are largely self-reliant to finance their education and may not have complete awareness of loan options available to them.

Over 83% of UG students are now open to starting their degree online to save costs!

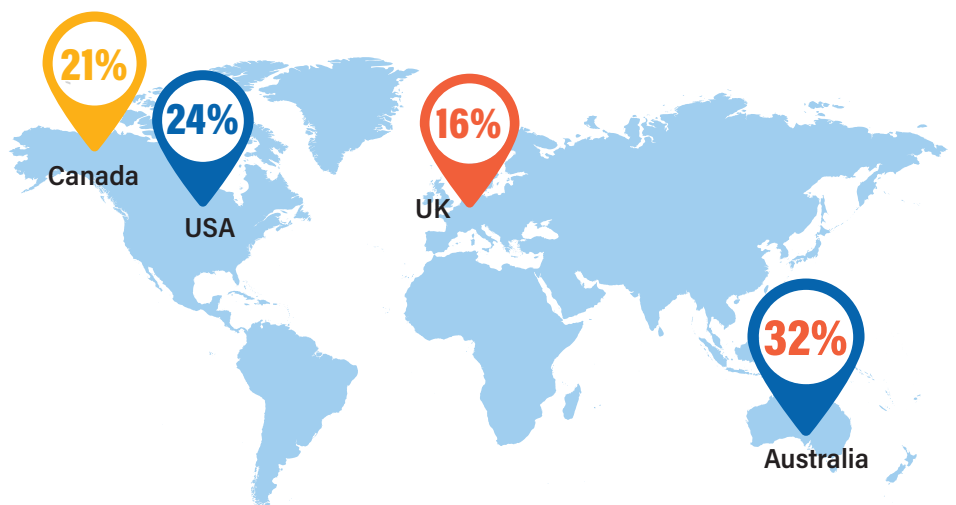

Choice of hybrid learning is higher amongst those who want to start now

86% of students, planning to start in next 3-12 months, are open to start their degree online

75% of students, planning to start with next academic cycle, are open to start their degree online

Australia has emerged as the most popular destination for undergraduate studies

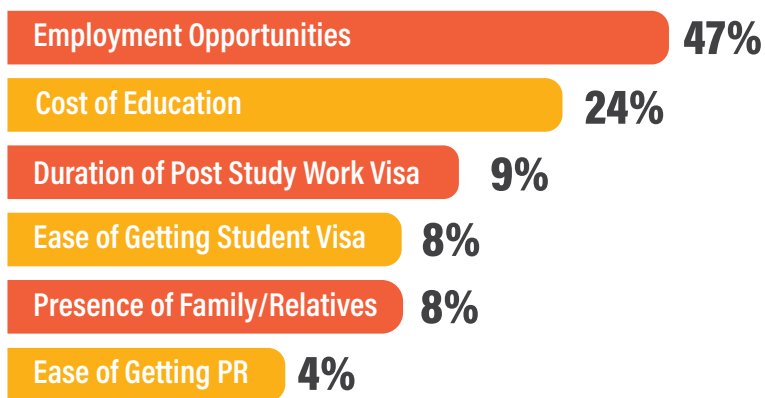

Note - Australia ranked above the other countries due to its low cost of undergraduate education

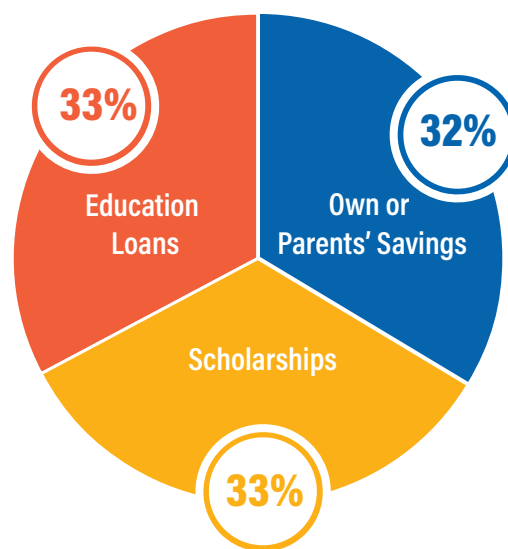

PG Aspirants are more willing to explore Hybrid Learning Option thanks to the lower cost of education

Employment Opportunities & Cost Of Education Are The Primary Factors For Overseas Studies

Around 47% PG aspirants ranked Employment Opportunities as the most important criteria to study overseas

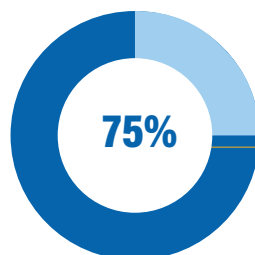

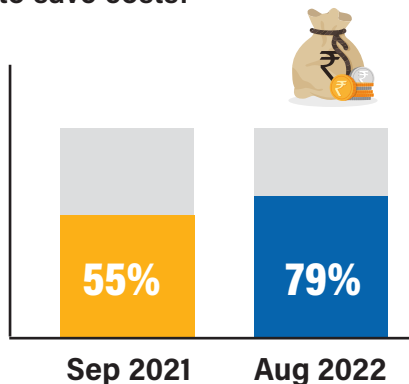

Scholarships make for an attractive option for students to study overseas at PG level.

Note - Students opting for education loans indicate a high degree of awareness and willingness to take a debt.

Almost 80% of PG aspirants are open to starting their degree online to save costs!

75% of PG aspirants would consider Hybrid Learning option at a lower cost.

USA is the most preferred destination for Hybrid Learning option.

Hybrid Learning option is the way to go for students who want to start right away

82% of students, planning to start in next 3-12 months, are open to starting their degree online

68% of students, planning to start with next academic cycle, are open to starting their degree online

America continues to dominate as the most popular Postgraduate destination

